DENISE COTE, District Judge:

On May 14, 2025, the parties filed a joint letter expressing disagreement as to whether they are required to make declarants available for cross-examination at the preliminary injunction hearing scheduled for May 29. The plaintiffs stated that they may wish to cross-examine the defendants' declarants, but were not prepared to make that determination before reviewing the defendants' opposition papers. The defendants stated that they do not currently seek to cross-examine the plaintiffs' declarants, but may seek to do so if the plaintiffs seek cross-examination of the defendants' declarants. On May 16, the defendants filed their opposition papers, which included three declarations. Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED that the parties shall confer and advise by tomorrow, May 21, whether they seek to cross-examine any declarants at the May 29 hearing.
